

Theebana Tharmakumar | Senior Consultant

After working in change management and behaviour change consulting, Theebana became increasingly interested in the broader systems that shape outcomes. Her transition to evaluation at ARTD has allowed her to explore these systems and provide meaningful recommendations that encourage their improvement.

I enjoy working through complex, systems-based problems—understanding how different parts connect and influence each other. I'm equally driven to ensure the voices of those impacted are part of shaping the solution.
