MOYA JOHANSSON
MANAGER

Moya supports evaluations and reviews in areas of complex social policy, most commonly in the legal services environment, suicide prevention, mental health and disability sectors. She has a background in law and brings her skills and insights from the legal services environment to the public policy process.

Her strengths lie in stakeholder engagement, qualitative data collection and analysis, and clearly and eloquently articulating findings.

I am passionate about always bringing an analytical and evidence-based lens to my work in evaluation. Our independence demands we provide reasoned and defensible judgments about the merit and worth of programs, services and policies. I believe we can do this together and include a diverse range of voices in evaluation.

MIXED-METHODS EVALUATION

Moya is an experienced project manager and designer of mixed-methods evaluations, and is a lead report writer at ARTD. She regularly collects and synthesises both qualitative and quantitative data using a variety of methods in her evaluations. She has experience working with people with lived experience on her projects in the suicide prevention sector, and has led the engagement with children and young people in several of the evaluations she has worked on.

Her recent evaluation projects include the Towards Zero Suicides Evaluation (evaluating six Toward Zero Suicides initiatives) (NSW Health, 2020-2023), the Child and Youth HOPE (aftercare service for children and young people at risk of suicide) (Victorian Department of Health, 2022-2024), NSW Suicide Prevention Framework Evaluation – Year 1 (Mental Health Commission, 2023), Older People's Suicide Prevention Pathway Evaluation (NSW Health, 2022-2023), the Fair Work Commission National Wage Assessment Structure Trial (Department of Social Services, 2020-21, and the Employ my Ability (Department of Social Services), 2022-2025.

LEGAL SERVICES POLICY ENVIRONMENT

Before joining ARTD, Moya worked as both a paralegal and lawyer at Minter Ellison, a leading International Corporate Law firm, in the Media & Telecommunications team. Her law background sees her commonly work on projects in the legal services policy environment. She also often reviews and advises on regulatory and legislative requirements or components of projects.

Examples include the Evaluation of Risk Assessment Management Panels (Family Safety Victoria, 2020-22), Evaluation of Southport Domestic and Family Violence Court (Queensland Department of Justice and Attorney-General, 2020-21), the NSW Drink and Drug Driving Reforms (NSW Centre for Road Safety, 2020), the Evaluation of Queensland Drug and Alcohol Court (Queensland Department of Justice and Attorney-General, 2020), and the Open Doors to Renting Reforms - Queensland Public Consultation (Queensland Department of Housing and Public Works, 2018-19).

PERFORMANCE, MONITORING AND EVALUATION FRAMEWORKS

Moya has assisted with the development of Organisational Performance, Monitoring and Evaluation Frameworks in the mental health sector. Examples include the Safety and Quality Curriculum Monitoring and Evaluation Framework (Clinical Excellence Commission NSW, 2021), and the NDIS Commission Evaluation and Performance Framework (NDIS Commission, 2019-2020).
