

Natalie Martino | Manager

Natalie is an experienced evaluator and project manager, committed to delivering high quality projects for her clients. Drawing on her training in social science and law, Natalie considers the legal dimensions of policies and services and their social impacts on the communities they are designed to serve.

She demonstrates the research and analytical skills necessary to understand the factors required for the formulation of effective policy and programs. Natalie believes the most effective decisions come from integrating quantitative data with the voices of those directly involved in programs, helping create more responsive programs that ultimately address social disadvantage.

I enjoy the problem solving involved in evaluation, in having to consider the impacts of a program or policy on a range of stakeholders and balance several key objectives.

Education:

- Lawyer of the Supreme Court of NSW
 - Graduate Diploma of Legal Practice, The College of Law, 2020
 - Bachelor of Social Science and Bachelor of Laws (Honours), Macquarie University, 2019

Sector experience: Legal services and criminal justice

Natalie is an Australian lawyer at the Supreme Court of NSW. She has extensive experience in interviewing stakeholders from justice environments and vulnerable groups that engage with justice system responses. She is excellent at clearly communicating complex information for various audiences.
